10 YEAR TEAM - SOCCER

The mark the 10th anniversary of varsity sports at Concordia University, Director of Athletics Dr. Edmund F. Enos has announced all-ten-year teams in each sport.

The Concordia University soccer team of the decade 1975-1984 consists of 15 dedicated, skilled and proud athletes. During their 10 years with the program these athletes and their teammates won four Quebec titles and the national championship in 1976.

Among the athletes named to the team are goaltender Wally Smith, who was named to the QUAA all-star team five years in a row and Jim Corsi, the great soccer forward who also played in nets for the Stinger hockey team and earned an engineering degree while at Concordia. Corsi is presently playing hockey with the Italian national team while Smith works in real estate here in Montreal.
